

BULLETIN

Kitimat Smelter and Kemano Power Operations Workers

Bargaining Update #7

Bargaining Committee Proceeds With Caution

After wasting two days of valuable bargaining time, the Employer requested that the parties reconvene at the bargaining table. Of course, your Union was ready to bargain two days previously had the employer not walked away from the table.

It appears the employer now understands the efficiencies of applying our traditional bargaining process. Your Union views this development as optimistic; however, your Union will proceed with caution.

